Dear Judge Abrams:

I represent the Defendants in the above matter, I write this letter with the consent of the Plaintiff's counsel with whom I maintain a terrific, cordial, and professional relationship.

I write this letter to respectfully request a one-week adjournment to submit the revised settlement agreement as per the Court's order (Docket # 20). I ask for this adjournment due to the fact that my client has been out of the country and has no access to his emails and will not return to the US until the end of the week.

I thank the Court for consideration in this matter

Application granted.
